Group Trip to visit the Southampton Passion Play

Progress Report

2011 is already here, 2015 is therefore only a short, but eventful journey away. I am glad to see so many people still enthusiastic about the idea of the next Passion Play and keen to pursue united church activities in the build up to it and beyond.

It was wonderful to see so many singers out on December 22nd sharing the spirit of Christmas together in the town. Activities proposed for this year are varied and we anticipate some excellent camaraderie and faith being shared in the forthcoming year.

I hope many of you will join us on a trip to Southampton to watch their interpretation of the Passion on Good Friday, which has been partially sponsored by P & O and endorsed by Sir Cliff Richard.

Peter Shears from St Anne's is busy working on an entertaining and informative extravaganza to celebrate the 400th anniversary of the King James' bible which will be something to be sure to put in the diary when dates and venue are finalised.

We are extremely grateful and pleased to have local artist Tom Homewood on board to design a logo for us, which will artistically represent the ideas and objectives of the group and we look forward to this materialising over the next couple of months.

I do hope you are able to join us on February 26th for our next 'Bring and Share' when we shall have a chance to remember the Passion 2010; have some light entertainment and of course, delight in excellent company.

Our data base is growing all the time enabling us to share information with individuals across the churches and beyond, so if you have not already given us your contact details and would like to know more about what we are doing please contact us by e-mail or telephone.
