Once again we invite you to join us to sing Carols in Lewes.

This year we are proposing to have three large groups to each sing at three set points for approx 30 minutes, inviting the residents in the area to come out and join us.

We are delighted that Eastgate Baptist Church has invited us afterwards for a final united sing and warming refreshments.

Singers are required to form the large groups –

RSVP if you would like to join in! All ages and abilities welcome.

Help!! Please contact us ASAP if you are an experienced singer and willing to help lead a group.

FITZROY FORTE

We were delighted with the sell out success of the evening of music and song, held in September, presented by singers who performed during the 2010 Lewes Passion Play production.

Fitzroy House - Original Lewes Town Library.

From the organising committee..... Dear Friends of Lewes Passion Play,

Where do the months go! Although time has passeth since our last bulletin we have not been slacking. Many of you came to the highly successful and entertaining music evening held at Fitzroy House, with some of the talented singers from the Passion Play. The ensemble performed a range of solo and choral work which was expertly directed by Stella Hull. The evening was sold out and everyone enjoyed the wine and canapés under the glass roof of Fitzroy House. A big 'thank you' to all those who supported us.

As we move in to 2012 we are beginning to look at how the Passion will unfold in three years time and prayers are now welcome for this next step. We are in the process of applying for charitable status and drawing up appropriate documents for this in order for us to consider larger forms of fundraising. We are also beginning to sow the artistic seeds and pray for guidance in this area in order to help our vision for this extremely spiritually uplifting community project. Please let us know of any ideas every little helps. As we approach Christmas we hope you will join us again this year with some vocal cheer on December 21st singing around the town.

Together we go forward.
